COMMANDER'S REPORT

As the incoming Commander of White Rock Power and Sail Squadron, I am excited to take the helm. We are entering our 53rd year of promoting and teaching CPS-ECP safe boating courses in our community and this is an amazing feat! It is made even more amazing when you consider we are all volunteers who are passionate about sharing our knowledge and expertise with mariners of every level of experience and expertise. If you have an interest in becoming involved in Squadron activities, or even joining the Bridge, I welcome you to contact me.

Our Squadron's programming and events are overseen by our Bridge (executive). Our Squadron AGM took place on April 17 at which time our new Bridge was elected. It is 15 members strong, 7 of whom are Past Commanders (that translates into an impressive wealth of experience and wisdom).

Joining me on the Bridge are:

- Training Officer Geoff Nunns, AP. Geoff previously served as Assistant Training Officer and Member at Large.
- Secretary Denise Foxall, AP. Denise is an experienced proctor for the Boating Essentials course.
- Treasurer Sean Parkinson, JN. Sean will provide financial acumen as our diligent Treasurer.
- Public Relations Officer Andrew Pothier, SN. Past Commander Andrew instructs a number of courses such as GPS/Electronic Navigation and VHF/Marine Radio in addition to organizing many social events.
- Membership Officer John Naylor, SN. Past Commander John is a former instructor and also serves on the District Bridge as Assistant Training Officer.
- Supply Officer Lawrence Parkin, P. Lawrence can always be counted upon to keep track of our student materials and have them at the ready.
- Communications Officer, Harald Hanssen, JN. Past Commander Harold instructs Advanced Courses such as Advanced Piloting and Junior Navigator.
- Editor Larisa Hanssen. Larisa brings her writing and publication skills as our talented Anchorline Editor.
- Cruise Master Barry Baniulis, P. Past Commander Barry organizes an exceptional cruising schedule with two Squadron cruises already completed and several more to follow.
- Webmaster Gerry Spence, AP. Past Commander Gerry also instructs our weather courses.
- Assistant Webmaster/Historian Linda Spence. Linda is doing double duty on the Bridge this year.
- Assistant Training Officer Tom Foxall, JN. Tom is an experienced Advanced course proctor.
- Member at Large, Shirley Shea, AP. Past Commander Shirley currently serves as Pacific Mainland District (PMD) Commander having been elected to her second year in this position on May 24th.
- Past Commander Norm Headrick, SN. Past Commander Norm is also PMD Past Commander.

I am delighted to have all of these members on my Bridge as each has previously served our Squadron in various capacities and will be able to assist me throughout the upcoming year.

The Commander's Ball and Change of Watch was held on May 10th at the Pacific Inn. PMD was represented by Executive Officer Dave Magnusson, JN, and his wife PMD Secretary Janette Magnusson. Our Bridge was sworn in and recognition awards were given out to many very deserving individuals: Bridge members, instructors, proctors (assistant instructors), and others who have contributed a minimum of 20 hours of service over the past year. Past Commander Norm Headrick was recognized for 28 years of dedication and service to CPS-ECP at Squadron, District and National levels and his First Mate Anne was recognized for 27 years of contributing her time and talents. It was a fabulous evening attended by 66 Squadron members and guests. Andrew Pothier organized the event and it was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Over the past year, some 150 students enrolled in our Boating Basics (formerly BoatPro), Boating Essentials (formally our flagship Boating course), VHF Marine Radio, Fundamentals of Weather, Seamanship, GPS/Electronic Navigation, Radar for Pleasure Craft, Advanced Piloting, and Instructor Training courses. You become a life-long learner when your recreational pursuit is boating! Check out our September and January schedules on www.boatingcourses.ca to reserve and ensure your seat.

As we look forward to the coming year, I wish you a fantastic boating season and to all:
Fair winds and following seas!

Saacha Vantyl, S
Commander

AGM

The 52nd Annual General Meeting for White Rock Power and Sail Squadron was held at ABC Country Restaurant, Surrey on April 14, 2014.

Squadron Commander Norm Headrick chaired the meeting and Squadron Secretary Denise Foxall acted as secretary. The proceedings at the Squadron's Annual General Meeting follow the guidelines set out by the national Canadian Power and Sail Squadrons organization.

Minutes of the April 15, 2013 Annual General Meeting were tabled and approved. Reports from Commander Norm Headrick and Training Officer Gerry Durant provided a good overview of the Squadron's activities over the last year. Treasurer Sean Parkinson presented his report and the Financial Statements of the Squadron for the twelve-month period ending March 31, 2014. The report of the Squadron's Auditor Shelley Durant was then presented.

It was then time to proceed with the elections of Officers of the White Rock Squadron for the year to come. Past Commander Andrew Pothier assumed the Chair as the Officers nominated in the Report of the Nominating Committee were duly elected in accordance with the provisions of the Squadron Regulations. Ken Penny was appointed as Internal Audit Committee Chair for the Squadron.

Commander Saacha Vantylor then welcomed the newly-elected Officers to the 2014/2015 Bridge and dealt with a few items of New Business. The Annual General Meeting was adjourned 30 minutes after the start of the meeting.

WEATHER FIT FOR A QUEEN

Perfect weather conditions were in order for the Victoria Day weekend as members of the White Rock Power and Sail Squadron gathered at Telegraph Harbor on Thetis Island.

Several boats departed on Friday spending the night at Montaque on Galiano Island prior to joining the festivities on Thetis Island. Smooth seas and sunshine was again in order on Saturday with only a refreshing 20 minute sun shower to mar the early afternoon. Boats attending were Kazbar, Tiburon 11, Halifax Jack, Freedom Too, Acadia, Mary D, Akevitt and Smoochee Two.

The happy hour was enjoyed by 17 happy participants and many took advantage of great live music in the evening – some even dancing. On Sunday, some of the admirals took off in kayaks enjoying the local marina scene with no spills reported. In the afternoon, Paul Dumbleton christened his new-to-him 38 Bayliner naming it Mary D after his mother – all drank to its continued good fortune. And then many took part in a blind wine tasting event- fun for all! A wonderful potluck was enjoyed by all followed by 16 playing crib. And what are the odds – Paul of the newly christened Mary D had 24 in a hand and 24 in his crib. First place honors to John of Halifax Jack, second place to Paul of the Mary D and third place was awarded to Pat of Kazbar.

Some stayed out for a few extra days while those returning to home marinas reported excellent sea conditions

TRAINING

Training Officer Geoff with his wife Jennifer at the 2014 Change of Watch

The 2014-2015 White Rock Squadron Bridge is pleased to welcome Geoff Nunns as the new Training Officer. Geoff has been a member of the White Rock Squadron Bridge for the past 2 years. The following report was submitted by Training Officer Geoff at the last Bridge meeting held in May 2014:

Commander and fellow Bridge members;

The spring exam schedule has wrapped up with the writing of Boating Essentials and Advanced Piloting courses. 22 of 23 students have written the Boating Essentials exam, with 20 student obtaining a passing grade. I'm trying to ascertain the CPS2e list from John Naylor for AP. Rooms for the Fall 2014 courses and the Spring 2015 courses have been booked with Surrey School District 36. Preparations for the Spring graduation has begun with the graduation ceremony occurring on May 27th.

Respectfully submitted by Geoff Nunns, Training Officer

DISTRICT COMMANDER'S REPORT

Fellow Squadron members:

First off let me congratulate Commander Saacha on her new position for 2014-2015 and also congratulations to the newly elected Bridge. White Rock Squadron received merit marks for 1969 calculated hours and I congratulate you all for your hard work. That is almost 3 ½ months of hard work looking at 7/24s. Well done!

As I tell all the other squadrons, you could work straight through and get the job done quickly... then there would be extra time to play on the water, just a thought.

Seriously though, we look forward to a better session this year with more advertising and promotion of CPS in the future. The stats are telling us that the courses are now starting to climb again. On the www.boatingcourses.ca site, our National IT Chair Carlos had to remove three courses for Vancouver Island as they were overbooked! That is a nice problem to have.

So with the popularity of the www.boatingcourses.ca and the constant promotion of CPS we are expecting a great year. We also filled the PMD Bridge with a lot of renewed talent. We were fortunate this year to have our Chief Joe Gatfield visit PMD and appreciated his involvement and concern for our District. We are adhering to the call for shorter courses (same content) and on-the-water courses. These are being developed at the present time.

I hope all of you are able to enjoy many hours on the water and remember to be safe this summer. The PMD Integrated Cruise will be Aug. 23-25 at Telegraph Harbour, Thetis Island again with Vancouver Squadron hosting. Please join us.

Regards,

Shirley Shea

Why Celestial Navigation?

I'm hooked. To me, celestial navigation represents the romance and the adventure of the long-gone days of the sailing ships, when much of our world had yet to be explored.

The purpose of celestial navigation, of course, is to solve the age-old problems of knowing one's position and setting a course on the high seas without reference to landmarks. These days, such problems are better solved using satellite navigation technology with an accuracy of a just a few metres, in day or night and in any weather. So why bother with a cumbersome methodology that can only be used when the right parts of the horizon and the sky are clear, and is most useful only during twilight? The answer to that question now needs to be quite a personal one. For me it is an another connection to our sea-going history and an opportunity to carry on some of the art and science of it. Today, celestial navigation can be a satisfying intellectual pursuit that is an end in itself. The study of it will surely make one a better navigator, wherever the voyage.

THE GALLEY GOURMET

Experience and Enjoy Crabbing

Part of the experience of boating in the Pacific Northwest is capitalizing upon the resources of nature. Catching crabs and enjoying the recipes that flourish with fresh caught crab are within the experience and abilities of even the novice boater. As in anything knowledge is paramount.

Of most importance, a shellfish license is obligatory, both in US waters and Canadian waters. The rules are slightly different in each country. The US mandate larger size for keeping, and also require that the mantle is kept on board as long as the crab meat is on board (for inspection if boarded). When your license is purchased, get the rules to clarify your actions.

Traps...all crab traps seem to work well.

Bait...the better the bait, the bigger the crabs you may catch. Best are salmon parts; chicken parts also work well.

Depth...15 to 50 feet.

Bottom...sandy, muddy, eel grass.

Cooking: some like to cook whole (with all the essence)...some break the crab in half, discard the mantle (more amenable to a smaller pot...it's your choice).

Harvesting the crab meat after cooking is best done with your crew and a glass of wine as part of happy hour!

We like to have Old Bay Seasoning on board and recommend Old Bay Crab Cake Classic Mix for terrific crab cakes (if you can find it). Also, I like to add crabmeat to a jar of Classico Alfredo sauce and serve over hot cooked pasta such as linguine. Top with more fresh crabmeat and season with Old Bay seasoning if desired. Enjoy!

Don crabbing with Jack & Liam of Drifter

Let's eat!

Baked Crab and Artichoke Dip:

6- 8 oz. crabmeat
 1- 6 oz. jar artichoke hearts, drained well and chopped
 1 cup mayonnaise
 1 cup Parmesan cheese, grated
 2 garlic cloves, minced
 ¼ tsp. Tabasco sauce
 Salt and pepper to taste
 Combine all ingredients in a small baking dish and bake at 350 for 20
 - 25 min. until hot and bubbly.
 Serve hot with tortilla chips or crusty French bread.
